You also agree to mediate any such dispute and to abide by all limitations of liability contained therein.

Forward Looking Statements

The Securities and Exchange Commission encourages companies to disclose forward-looking information so that investors can better understand a company's future prospects and make informed investment decisions. Words such as "may," "anticipate," "estimate," "expects," "projects," "intends," "plans," "believes" and words and terms of similar substance used in connection with any discussion of future operating or financial performance of Saladax, identify forward- looking statement. All forward-looking statements are management's present expectations of future events and are subject to a number of risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those described in the forward-looking statements. These risks and uncertainties include, among other things: our inability to further identify, develop and achieve commercial success for new products and technologies; the continued acceptance and use of our existing products and technologies; the development of competing products; our ability to protect our proprietary technologies; patent-infringement claims; risk of new, changing and competitive technologies and regulations in the United States and internationally; and other factors.

In light of these assumptions, risks and uncertainties, the results and events discussed in the forward-looking statements contained in the Saladax web sites might not occur. You are cautioned to not rely on the forward-looking statements. Saladax is not under any obligation, and expressly disclaims any obligation, to update or alter any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
